

A photograph of a man with short, dark hair, wearing a dark blue short-sleeved button-down shirt and light-colored trousers. He is sitting on a dark metal mesh chair in a cemetery. He is holding a brown paper coffee cup in his right hand. His left hand is resting on the chair's backrest, showing a gold watch and a ring. In the background, there are green trees and a large, dark stone monument with a cross on top. The monument has some text on it, including 'FAMILIE' and 'KREIER'. The overall scene is outdoors and well-lit.
